

English 12

FINAL EXAM STUDY GUIDE

Total Questions: 80

Grammar & Writing

Cause/Effect

Thesis statement

Sensory details

Comma Usage

Formal Language

Parallel Structure

Verb Tense

Literature: Fiction & Nonfiction, Short Story, Poetry

Allegory

Alliteration

Allusion

Anecdote

Antagonist

Aside

Assonance

Autobiography

Biography

Characterization

Compare/Contrast

Conflict

Consonance

Dialogue

Drama

Dramatic Irony

Epic

Epic Hero

Eulogy

Excerpt

Exposition

Expository Writing

Fact/Opinion

First Person

Flashback

Foreshadowing

Genre

Hyperbole

Idiom

Imagery

Inference

Inverted sentence structure (Shakespearean style language) - Inversion is achieved by doing the following: Placing an adjective after the noun it qualifies e.g. the soldier strong, Placing a verb before its subject e.g. shouts the policeman, Placing a noun before its preposition e.g. worlds between.

Irony

Kenning

Metaphor

Meter

Mood

Narrative Writing

Oxymoron

Paradox

Paraphrase

Personification

Persuasive Writing

Plot

Point of View

Protagonist

Quatrain

Resolution

Rhyme Scheme

Rising Action

Romanticism

Satire

Setting

Simile

Soliloquy

Sonnet

Stanza

Stock Epithet - any word or phrase applied to a person or thing to describe an actual or attributed quality: "Richard the Lion-Hearted" is an epithet of Richard I. 2. a characterizing word or phrase firmly associated with a person or thing and often used in place of an actual name, title, or the like, as "man's best friend" for "dog."

Style

Symbolism

Theme

Third Person Omniscient

Tone

Tragic Flaw

Verbal Irony
