What Would You Say?

If you were Elie's friend during his experiences in the novel, what advice or support would you have given him? What would have been your reaction to some of the events he had to endure?

Directions: Write conversations between Elie and yourself using dialogue that includes proper punctuation. Be sure to stay true to Elie's character. His actions or responses should be consistent with those of the novel. Remember that every time the speaker changes, you must indent and create a new line. The first dialogue format is done for you.

1. Situation: Idek beats Elie's father with an iron rod for being lazy.

Elie: “

Elie: “

2. Situation: Rabbi Eliahou asks about his son after their first rest stop in the march to the train station to Buchenwald.

3. Situation: Juliek is being slowly crushed by the crowd of prisoners entering the barracks to get out of the snow.
