

I am Poem

I am from (outside of house)
I am from (parents)
I am from (inside of house)
I am from (school)
I am from (pop culture)
I am from (holiday/traditions)
I am from (things that your parents say)
I am from (streets/shops/popular hangouts)
I am from (family name/origins/culture)
This me (I am)
This is not me (I am not)

Example:

Night I am Poem

I am from a small ghetto that reminds me of an open tomb with faceless neighbors.
I am from a mother that was taken away as soon as we got off of the bus and a father that wouldn't let go.
I am from a crowded cattle wagon where I am treated like a caged animal.
I am from Cabbala, Jewish mysticism, the Talmud and the Torah.
I am from death marches and selection.
I am from The Holocaust.
I am from "I've got more faith in Hitler than anyone else. He's the only one who's kept his promises, all his promises to the Jewish people".
I am from Auschwitz, Berkenau, Buna and Buchenwald.
I am from the Weisels
I am a Holocaust survivor.
I am not A-7713 anymore.
